

Senior Progress/OpenEdge Programmer

Job Description

The Senior Developer will design, document, develop, code, implement, and document business applications Progress OpenEdge relational database management system (RDBMS), are written primarily using the Progress OpenEdge Advanced Business Language, run in a Linux environment, and consist of:

- Work with the business units to identify business requirements for requested projects
- Identify the technical requirements of projects
- Analyze all aspects of the projects
- Plan and organize tasks, report on project progress, coordinate with additional development teams. Development & Deployment
- Produce detailed design documents
- Develop programming specifications
- Design applications that deliver requested functionality
- Write program code to create applications for requested projects
- Create test plans, test cases and test scripts
- Conduct quality control tests to ensure integrity, reliability and validity
- Prepare field pilots of application changes

Required Skills

- 5+ years IT experience
- Proficient with Progress 4GL and OpenEdge Business Process Management (BPM)
- Experience with OpenEdge Prodatassets, MQ Series, Progress 4GL XML tools is a plus
- Some experience leading projects
- Experience with C, SQL, Java, JBoss, HTML, XML, JavaScript, Struts and any Web Technologies